Make the Summer Work for You: Three Workshops

Tuesday, June 29, 2010

6:30-8:00pm at Congregation Rodeph Shalom

Online Professional Social Networking: An Overview

We all remember the days when “networking” meant attending a breakfast or dinner and exchanging business cards with promises to meet in the future. Now, you can do effective networking from the privacy of your own home, opening the door to “hidden” jobs. Social networks like Facebook and Twitter, and business sites like LinkedIn are essential to your job search. This workshop is presented by F-E-G-S.

Wednesday, July 14, 2010

10:00—11:30am at FECS (315 Hudson St.)

(Space is limited; pre-registration is required)

LinkedIn I: The Details

How many invitations to LinkedIn have you received, and deleted because you don't know what to do! You've heard all the buzz about LinkedIn, but what is it? This hands-on workshop will cover the basics of how to use LinkedIn. We will offer a step-by-step guide to creating a profile, uploading contacts, and beginning to network online. This workshop is delivered by F-E-G-S.

Tuesday, July 27, 2010

6:30-8:00pm at Congregation Rodeph Shalom

Access to Health Care: Health Insurance Options in New York State

The loss or reduction in hours of a job or anticipated employment transition can cause many concerns, including losing employer-provided health insurance. Remaining uninsured is very risky and can lead to added financial burdens. The costs of health insurance carry similar concerns. This workshop offered by Elizabeth Jois, Esq. of the New York Legal Assistance Group (NYLAG) will provide information about the availability of health insurance, including COBRA, private, and the various public health insurance options for children and adults.

These workshops are being offered in partnership with UJA-Federation of New York's Connect to Care. For a complete listing of Connect to Care services, please see www.jcprograms.org/connect-to-care and/or call the JBFCFS Hub at 212 399-2685 ext 206.

To RSVP for any of the workshops, please email workshops@crsnyc.org or call 646-454-3123. Please note that pre-registration is required for the LinkedIn I session on July 14.
