Yahrzeit Observance

If you have loved ones whose names you would like to be placed on our Kaddish list, regardless of their religious identity, please list the names below. While it is customary to observe yahrzeit on the Hebrew date of death, some members prefer to use the English date. Please let us know if you would like assistance in determining the Hebrew date.

A Yahrzeit reminder letter will be sent approximately one month prior to the date.

Opportunities for Involvement and Enrichment

Congregation Rodeph Sholom takes pride in the active involvement of our congregational family and in the personal relationships we make with each other.

One way our congregants' foster community is by coming together for Shabbat dinners in people's homes.

Please circle if you are interested in attending a dinner: Y / N

Members have also found that participating in our committees is an excellent way to meet new people and become engaged. Enthusiasm is far more important than experience. New committee members and innovative ideas are always welcome.

If you have any questions regarding these committees, please contact us at 646.454.3055 or membership@crsnyc.org
