

My Rosh Hashanah Service

A Social Story

*Happy
New Year!*

Congregation Rodeph Sholom
Friday, September 10th 2010
11:00am—12:00pm

I am going to a Rosh Hashanah service at Rodeph Sholom on Friday!

The service will be in a big room called the "Schafler Forum."

Rabbi Ben will lead the service, and Louie will play his guitar.

I will do good sitting, and I will listen to Rabbi Ben and Louie. I will sing along if I want to.

I will hear a Rosh Hashanah story.

We will sing a special prayer called the “Shema.”

Some people close their eyes for this prayer.

Rosh Hashanah is a good time to give each other blessings for a new year.

There will be a chance to say nice things to each other.

I can play a tambourine, play a drum, or use a shaker if I want.

Rabbi Ben will take the Torah out of the ark for dancing and singing.

Then Rabbi Ben will read from the Torah.

Rabbi Ben will blow the shofar. The shofar is a ram's horn we blow on Rosh Hashanah.

On Rosh Hashanah we eat sweet foods.

There will be apples and honey to eat at the end of the service.
