

Brit Milah Rental Information

Room rentals are based on your number of guests and the availability of the space.

Rentals Include:

- All rentals include both a chapel space for the service and a second space for the luncheon. It is a three-hour rental in total for ceremony and meal.
- The rental includes the spaces, tables, chairs, linens (gray or gold), a coffee/tea/ice water set-up, and security.
- We can also supply the kiddush cup with wine for the ceremony upon request.
- The building is generally closed on Sundays, but can be opened for an additional $950 opening fee.

The service will be in either the Schnurmacher Chapel (200 people), the 5th Floor Chapel (100 people), or the Hahn Chapel (60 people), based on your booking needs.

The luncheon/reception can be in any of the following rooms:

Room Name	Room Capacity	Rental Fee (member/non-member)
Leader Board Room	60 people	$1,300 / $1,600
5 th Floor Event Space	72 people	$1,300 / $1,600
Eisner Auditorium	100 people	$1,300 / $1,600
Schafler Forum	300 people	$1,300 / $1,600

Other information:

- Catering—please see our list of approved caterers for options. You are welcome to do a drop-off; however, the caterer must send someone to set up the food.
- The family or caterer are responsible for paper goods, decorations, and challah.
- Mohel—you are welcome to use any mohel you choose; we have a list of a few our clergy have worked with, available on request.
- Strollers are not permitted in the building for security purposes. Please plan accordingly.
- Rooms may not be booked until the baby is born.
- The mohel should be your first phone call, to set the time of the Bris. After that, please email Rachael Evans at revans@crsnyc.org to book the space.
