ROLL OF REMEMBRANCE

YOM KIPPUR 5787/2026

CONGREGATION RODEPH SHOLOM

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He guideth me in straight paths for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou are with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou hast anointed my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

REMEMBRANCE by its power prompts us to acknowledge the debt we owe to the past, and the particular obligation we owe to our forebears. Thus we impress upon ourselves the lesson of gratitude to all those who have lived before us, recalling everything they have achieved in our behalf and for others.

REMEMBRANCE cultivates among us a deep sensitivity concerning the meaning and value of the continuity of life within the annals of the everlasting universe.

REMEMBRANCE grants us a preview to the future, wherein, we trust, even as we have remembered others in prior æons of time, those who follow us will not consign us to oblivion.

REMEMBRANCE moves us to cherish the rituals of remembrance, so that we and the members of our family may willingly accept the gentle discipline of recollection from generation to generation.

REMEMBRANCE reminds each one of us that our individual life must not be fragmentary and inconsequential, but must contribute to the total pattern of density in terms of good and blessing. Even as our ancestors have hallowed life, so may we and others yet to be born likewise sanctify its meaning. As we seek to enact our rightful role for "a brief moment in universal time" may we ever proclaim that "the glory of the Lord is in us all."

(By the late Rabbi Louis I. Newman)

“O God, full of compassion, thou who dwellest on high! Grant perfect rest beneath the sheltering wings of Thy presence among the holy and pure who shine as the brightness of the firmament unto the soul of the beloved and the cherished ones in the Holy Congregation on High who have gone into eternity. Lord of mercy, bring them under the cover of Thy wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bonds of eternal life. Be thou their possession, and may their repose be peace. Amen.”
